

Prompts for working with the cartoons:

- How do the artists use symbolism and language to present their message to the audience?
- Defend, challenge, or qualify the statement that stereotypes are an effective way to present political messages.

Prompts for working with “Our Barbies Ourselves”:

- How does Prager use the elements of language to show the reader her relief that Barbie was created by a man?
- Discuss how the author’s use of tone and questions enhance the piece.

Prompt for working with “Our Barbies Ourselves” and “Wile E. Coyote v. Acme”:

- What is the author’s claim and how does the author present that?
