

Source D: Image Bank: Escalation into Cambodia

IMAGE 1

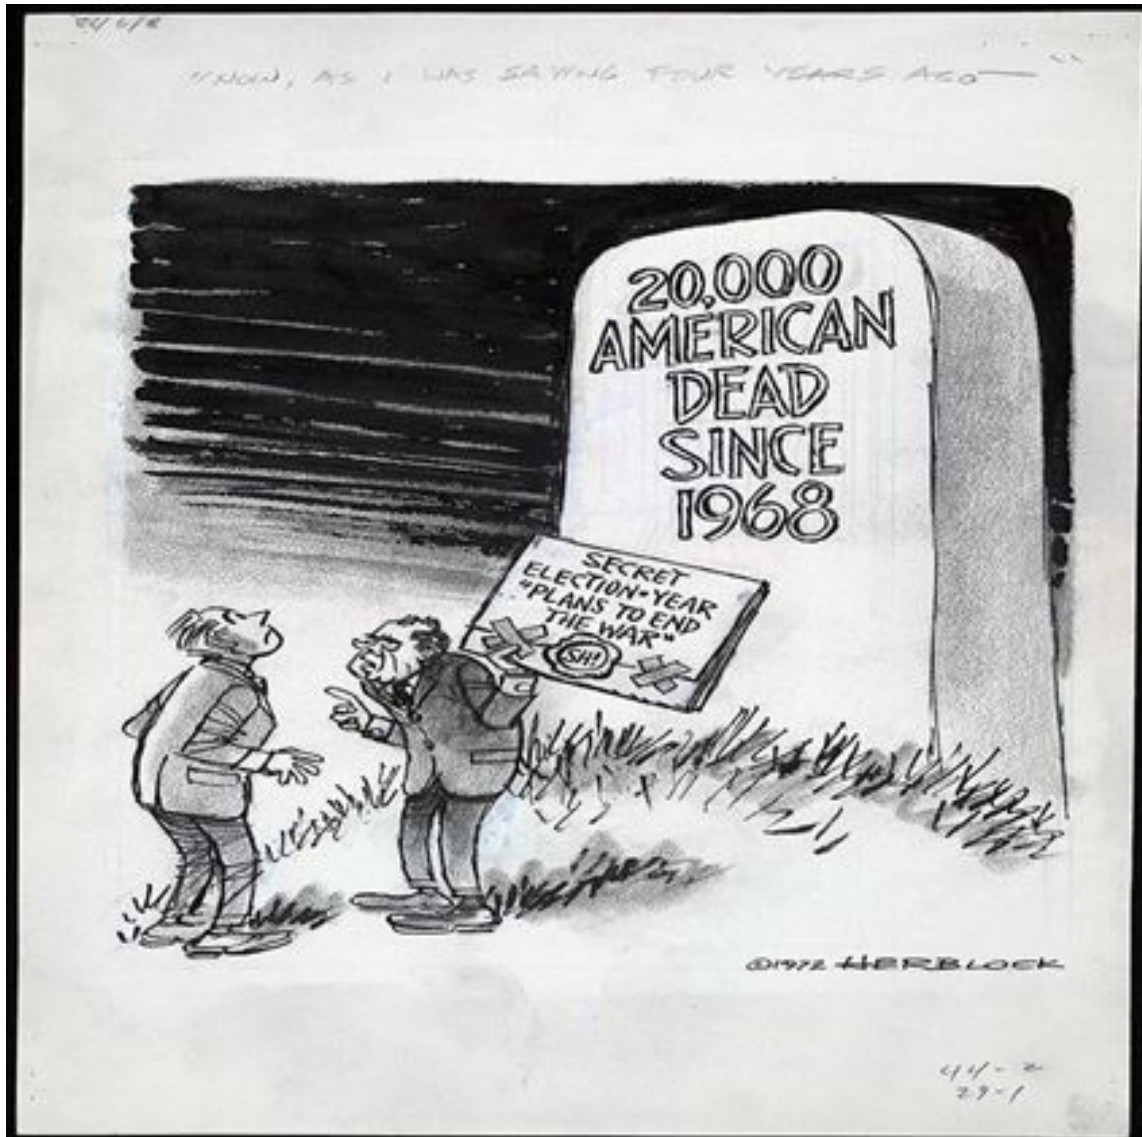

Image 1: Herblock, political cartoon critical of US involvement in the Vietnam War, "Now, as I Was Saying Four Years Ago," 1972.

Herblock, cartoon critical of US involvement in the Vietnam War, "Now, as I Was Saying Four Years Ago," 1972.

A 1972 Herblock Cartoon, © The Herb Block Foundation. Used with permission.

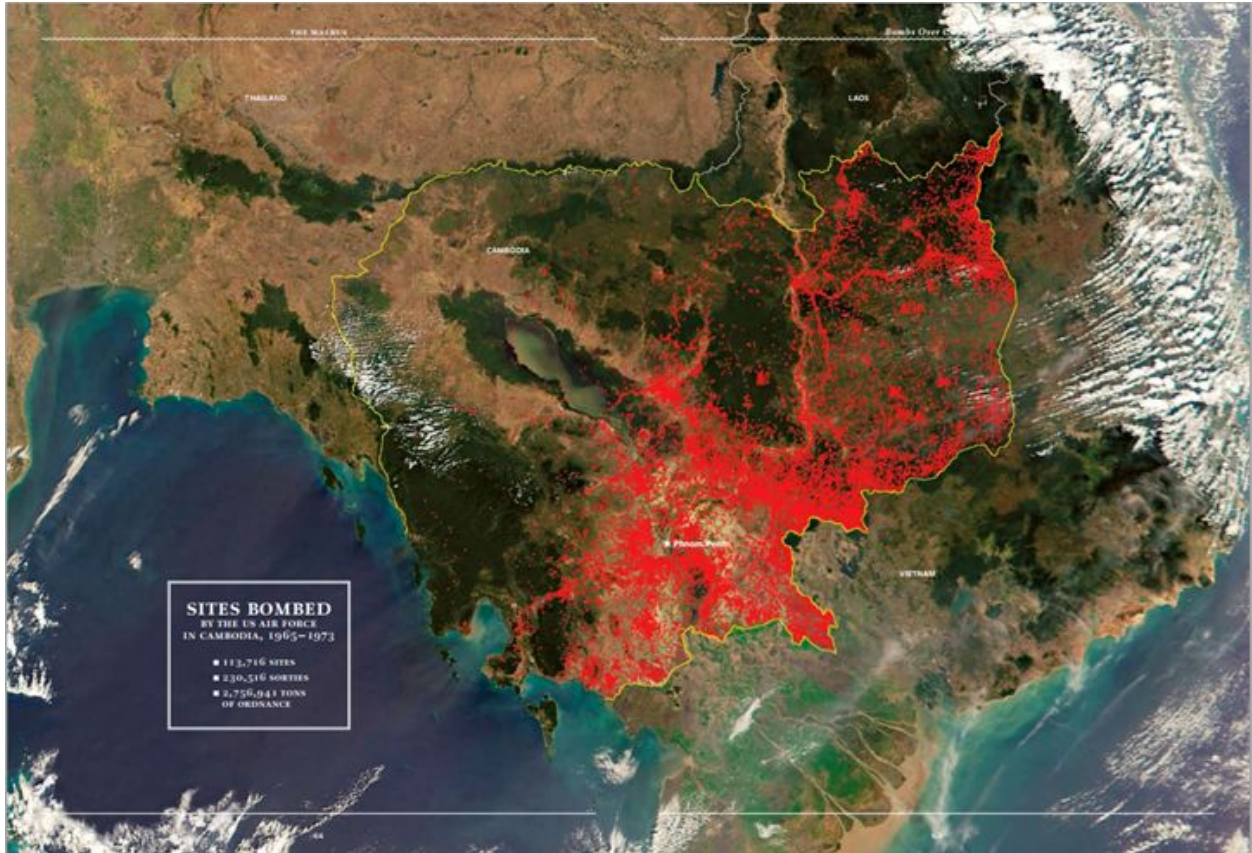

Image 2: Taylor Owen, map represented bombing sites, "Sites Bombed," 2006.

*NOTE: Despite not being directly involved in the Vietnam War, neighboring Cambodia was the scene of extensive military action. North Vietnamese troops used areas of Cambodia as bases for their military, and the United States regularly bombed these western Cambodia bases. In 1970, President Nixon ordered the secret invasion of Cambodia. This map, produced by Taylor Owen in 2006, highlights sites in Cambodia that were bombed by the United States military. Map © Taylor Owen. Used with permission. The map accompanied the article "Bombs over Cambodia," by Taylor Owen and Ben Kiernan, The Walrus, October 2006. Available at "The Cambodian Genocide Project," Yale University:*

http://www.yale.edu/cgp/Walrus_CambodiaBombing_OCT06.pdf.