

TEXT-CENTERED DISCUSSIONS CHECKLIST		COMMENTS
I. PREPARING	Reading &amp; Research: I come to the discussion prepared, having read the text and/or researched the topic we are studying.
II. ENGAGING AND PARTICIPATING	Engaging Actively: I pay attention to, respect, and work with all other participants in the discussion.
	Participating Responsibly: I take a variety of roles in the discussion, and I follow the guidelines or agreements we have set for the conversation.
	Recognizing Purpose &amp; Goals: I understand the purpose and goals of our discussion or work, and I contribute to our progress.
III. COMMUNICATING IDEAS, CLAIMS AND EVIDENCE	Presenting Ideas Coherently: I present my ideas and claims clearly, using relevant evidence and well-chosen details from the text.
	Communicating Clearly: When I talk with others, I make eye contact and speak in a clear, respectful voice so they can understand me.
IV. QUESTIONING	Posing Questions: I pose good questions that are centered on the text or topic and that help us think more deeply.
	Responding to Questions: I respond to others' questions or comments by citing specific, relevant evidence and ideas.
	Making Connections: I make valid and thoughtful connections and comparisons among my ideas and those of others.
V. LISTENING RESPECTFULLY	Acknowledging Others: I pay attention to, acknowledge, and consider thoughtfully new information and ideas from others.
	Qualifying or Justifying Views: I modify or further justify my ideas in response to evidence and ideas I have heard from others.	