

What would you create that serves a similar purpose, asks a similar question, or creates a similar mood? How would you do it? What media would you use? Where would it be and how would it look? Make a drawing/diagram of your idea.

In groups of 3-5: One person begins by presenting her/his drawing to the group. Each group member responds to the drawing by saying: I see _____ (list one thing). After everyone has responded, the presenter says:

I created _____.

My biggest challenge was/will be _____.

_____.
