

Name _____

Instructions: For examples #1–4, circle the adjective(s) in each sentence and underline the noun each one describes.

1. With its high latitude, Western Europe should have a cold climate.
2. Most climates along the equator are hot all year.
3. In some places, people never need a heavy coat.
4. To track the weather of a place, we measure two conditions.

Instructions: For examples #5–8, complete each sentence by writing an adjective in the blank.

5. The equator receives _____ sunlight.
6. Imagine you were at the equator standing on a _____ mountaintop.
7. Air tends to move around the planet in _____ directions.
8. People in this _____ part of the world need raincoats and umbrellas.

Name _____

Instructions: Use the T-chart below to compare the information in your book about the seasons (page 13).

Name _____

Instructions: Below are words taken from Explorer's Guide to World Weather. Cut along the dotted lines to separate the boxes. Then move the boxes around on a flat surface to arrange the words in alphabetical order.

cold	rainforest
people	rain
winds	regions
Earth	places
mountains	elevation
moisture	windward
cool	equator