Overview: Perhaps the greatest supercar ever, the Veyron 16.4 was for those with all the money in the world and a desire to go blisteringly fast: we say "was," because the Veyron is no longer sold and its replacement, the Chiron, is not yet available. With an 8.0-liter turbo-quad W-16 engine and all-wheel drive, the Veyron makes 1001 hp and has a 200-mph-plus top speed. For topless fun, see the Grand Sport with its targa top. Need more speed? Check out the 1200-hp Super Sport and Grand Sport Vitesse. FIRST DRIVE REVIEW - 2013 BUGATTI VEYRON 16.4 GRAND SPORT VITESSE
